

Power To The People The return of cold fusion

Monday, March 15, 1999

Hal Plotkin, Special to SF Gate

Cold fusion is back.

On Friday, March 26, 1999, the director of Menlo Park-based SRI International's Energy Research Center, Dr. Michael McKubre, will present the results of SRI's 10-year, $6 million-dollar effort to replicate the cold-fusion experiments of chemists Stanley Pons and Martin Fleischmann.

McKubre's startling conclusion: Pons and Fleischmann were on to something.
